

Hi friend,

Hope you're doing well and still playing BASS. There's great news!

We've launched a new website BassTabs.org. And it does what it says: hosts bass tabs. Mostly metal and where bass is fun.

The library's small yet, but it will be growing. And guess which band is prevailing - that's right, Metallica! Now it's time to finally complete transcribing their entire discography that we had started in the far year of 2015.

Our old tablatures will be gradually moving over the new place, and they are to be revised and improved, including the Total Cliff ones. So yeah, yet another Orion and Ktulu tabs are coming, the perfection quest never ends XD

The tabs are completely free, no password is needed. Just pick the song available, click download - and you're ready to jam. Also, some of the tabs have supportive videos, where Andriy himself performs the parts (at times even too enthusiastically, but hope you're ok with that).

Check out the tabs here BassTabs.org And if there's any matter, feel free to get in touch (desirably, via the website contact form).

Enjoy playing,

Andriy
