

Hi friend. Hope you're doing well. Here's something real special for ya :)

I've just finished isolating bass of all Metallica albums! Now in the process of tabbing 'em all. '72 Seasons' was first to have been completed and we've discussed Robert's bass there on a livestream. Other albums will follow, 'Hardwired' is coming next week, but it will take time to go all the way down to the beginning. But why wait?

You can enjoy 'Kill Em All' bass right now! This is as early access exclusively for BassTabsOrg newsletter followers. Yes, even 'Anesthesia' now has a no-Lars version XD But most importantly, we've managed to successfully separate bass parts in the songs like 'The Four Horsemen' and 'No Remorse' for which we never had stems available. So many nuances of Cliff Burton's playing has revealed!

Access Kill Em All bass-only compilation, as well as our live bass discussion of '72 Seasons', via the link below. Tracks and tabs for other records are coming, so check your emails.

P.S. And yeah, I've even managed to isolate bass in Ktulu :) At least this will be the clearest attempt so far.

Cheers,
Andriy
